CARRANZA SUICIDED ACCUSED MURDERER HERRERA CLAIMS

OFFERS TO COME TO MEXICO CITY
AND PROVE CARRANZA SUICIDED
RATHER THAN BECOME A FUGITIVE

OREGON CHARGES HERRERA WITH MURDER—CARRANZA IS BURIED, VAST THRONGS ATTENDING

Mexico City, May 25—General Alvarado Obregon, commander of the revolutionary forces, today commanded Rudolfo Herrera to surrender and answer to a charge of assassinating Carranza, former president of the republic. Obregon declared a clear case of treachery has been proven.

The order followed Herrera's offer to come to Mexico City after being given assurance of security, and give evidence which he claims would prove that Carranza died at his own hand. Herrera, in a telegram to General Gonzales, denied that he and his troops murdered the former president, according to a report received here. He declared Carranza had committed suicide rather than suffer the dishonor of becoming a fugitive.

Adolfo De La Huerta, former president of the state of Sonora, was elected provisional president of Mexico last night by the extra session of congress. His majority was overwhelming.

All of Carranza's staff who returned with the body were still under arrest today.

Surrounded by paupers' graves, marked only by a tiny heap of stones, and a simple wooden cross in the midst of a clump of evergreens on a knoll overlooking the valley in which the city of Mexico nestles, the body of Carranza, late president of Mexico, was buried late yesterday.

To the east lies the snow-capped peak of Popocatepetl. The mound covering the casket is no different than the scores covering the most humble dead. Carranza was buried according to his wishes in Delores—the cemetery of sorrows. Not in years has Mexico City seen such a crowd as that which choked the streets during Carranza's burial.

There was no hearse. A street car bore the body and those with it, to the cemetery.

FOOD PRODUCTION IN UNITED STATES IS DECREASING

DECLARED HERBERT HOOVER IN LETTER—ATTACKED "FARMER WHO FARMS THE FARMER"

HERBERT WALKER

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 25—Food production in the U. S. is decreasing so rapidly that all "highly trained farmers from the farm" should organize immediately to formulate a constructive policy of agricultural readjustment, Herbert Hoover declared in a letter to Rep. Riddick of Montana. The letter was made public today by Riddick.

"Unless steps are taken to stimulate the tide of decreasing food production, we shall soon be dependent on overseas supplies," Hoover warned.

He also said that a drop in prices will come sooner or later, and that an interest in food producing measures should be taken to see that the greatest part of the decline is not passed back to the farmers.

Deflation must not begin with the farmer, he said.

Defending the work of the food administration, Hoover sharply attacked the "farmer who farms the farmer," stating that he was shown the door and is still sore over his inability to control the food administration.

"The fact is that the price of food has increased steadily and that the farmer situation has grown worse directly due to the orgy of speculation and profiteering that has ensued since the dissolution of the food administration."

R. R. PRESIDENTS URGE HIGHER RATES

SHIPPER WILL TESTIFY PROTEST.
ING INCREASE ASKED FOR
BY RAILROADS
(By United Press)

Washington, May 25—President Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania Lines, went on the stand here today before the interstate commerce commission to urge increased freight rates which will give the roads additional revenue of $1,917,000,000 a year. G. M. Schriver, vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio, is to testify after Rea. Heads of all principal roads are listed as witnesses. Heads of shippers' organizations will follow the executives. The shippers will protest increased rates. Without higher rates the roads cannot pay six per cent on securities the executives contend.

Railroads Were Not Returned in Good Condition.

Washington, May 25—The interstate commerce commission today resumed hearing on petitions of railroads to increase freight rates approximating $1,170,000,000.

Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio road, was cross examined. When asked by Clifford Thorne, representative of the middle western shippers if the railroads were returned to their owners in as good condition as when the government took them, Willard said that they were not, and that the Baltimore & Ohio had claims against the government for $5,000,000 or $6,000,000.

PIONEER RAILROAD CONTRACTOR DIES

St. Paul, May 25—Timothy Foley, 82, pioneer railroad contractor and resident of St. Paul for more than forty years, died of pernicious anemia at his home here at 4:30 this morning.

Mr. Foley had been in ill health for some time. He went to California last fall and seemed to get better. This spring he suffered a set back resulting in his death. He returned from California about a month ago. He was born in Lanark county, Ontario, Canada, August 20, 1838.

He has built a large number of railroads, and it has been computed if all of the rails of the roads he has built were placed together there would be more than enough to stretch around the world.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE CONVENES, SPECIAL SESSION

Madison, Wis., May 25—The Wisconsin legislature convened in special session at 2:30 this afternoon at the call of Governor E. L. Phillip, the second extra session since the present law-making body took the oath of office. While there are only twenty-six subjects listed in the call it will take three weeks to complete the work.

The governor was expected to deliver his message late this afternoon or tonight.

CONTINUAL FALL IN PRICES PREDICTED BY BANK REPORT

OF SEVENTH FEDERAL RESERVE
BANK—TIGHTENING OF LOANS IS REPORTED

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 25—Continual decrease in prices were predicted today in a monthly report of the seventh federal reserve bank. Tightening of loans is continuous while demand for money and credit is exceedingly heavy. It deplored a tendency of farmers to buy securities for speculative enterprises. More than $200,000,000 of new securities were sold in Iowa alone last month, the report said.

The business world appears to be anticipating a business and trade readjustment in the economic social influence governing their national life and the situation is complicated because of lack of any precedence.

There are a number of complex influences which are themselves potent in character, the report said.

R. R. COM. JACOBSON CALLED TO NEW YORK

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 25—O. P. B. Jacobson, state railroad and warehouse commissioner, has been requested by the interstate commerce commission to serve on a special committee at New York to advise the commission on methods to expedite traffic. The committee or its members, will have the same power as that a similar committee had during the war when the railroads were under federal control. Mr. Jacobson will leave for New York early next week.

9 APPROPRIATION BILLS NOT PASSED

BY CONGRESS, AND ADJOURNMENT OR RECESS ONLY TEN DAYS AWAY

(United Press)

Washington, May 25—With only ten days remaining before the proposed convention recess or adjournment, nine of the sixteen appropriation measures have not yet been passed by congress.

House leaders have urged the senate to speed up work that the session may be completed by June 5. The appropriation measures not passed are the river and harbor, diplomatic and consular, agricultural, naval, District of Columbia, pension, army, sundry, civil and legislative, executive and judicial bills.

SUPPLYING FUEL OIL IS GREAT PROBLEM

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 25—The problem of supplying oil fuel for the U. S. naval department, merchant marine, industrial and other uses, is one that demands the immediate attention and consideration of Americans. Eugene MacAuliffe, president of the Union Colliery Co., told members of the International Fuel association in session here today.

W. J. BRYAN OPPOSES PRESIDENT'S POLICY ON ARMENIAN MANDATE

(By United Press)

Washington, May 25—W. J. Bryan today announced himself in direct opposition to President Wilson's formal policy when he declared against this country, accepting a mandate for Armenia.

Any mandate is impossible Bryan said in an interview.

"The one proposed for Armenia would involve us in enormous expenditures in a time when war tax is still so grievous a burden that the congress had difficulty in finding money necessary to do justice to the men who served in the world war. It would involve us in politics of Europe and compel us to deal in implacable race hatreds."

Brainerd will be visited this afternoon and made the night control of a large delegation of St. Paul business men, manufacturers and wholesalers who are making a tour of this section of Minnesota and North Dakota.

Brainerd is glad to extend a welcome to the delegation and hopes its stay in the city will be a pleasant one and work to mutual advantage.

As evidence of being a live town Brainerd points with pride and satisfaction to its new Northern Pacific railway depot; to its beautiful park system; to its new waterworks system fed by springs and soon to be completed; to its large Northern Pacific railway repair shops, the largest on any western railway; to its community of homeowners; to its agricultural and mining country tributary to Brainerd; to the wealth of lakes and streams just teeming with fish and a source of recreation to all the world, in fact Brainerd has within easy reach of town quite a few of the 10,000 lakes.

Brainerd is on the map as a baseball center, for here Bush and Bender were born and here flourishes true municipal baseball, being supported in donations by the shops and town.

Brainerd recently adopted a comprehensive program for street improvement and cement paving on city streets and approaches will be the order of the day.

Brainerd has two large creameries, one a farmers cooperative business, and both flourishing. Wool growers will market their clip in Brainerd next month. Potatoes thrive in this section and Crow Wing county has taken prizes in competition with the best potato-growing communities of the state.

Brainerd, in short, is a good place to live in, raise a family and gain a competency. Its schools and churches are unequalled. Its Brainerd municipal band is the pride of this section.

Brainerd is a good town and the Brainerd Dispatch and every citizen the St. Paul Trade Boosters meet will not let you St. Paul "fellows" forget it.

The St. Paul Trade Tour special will arrive in the city at 4:50 p. m. and spend the night here, leaving next morning for Deerwood and other range points.

The Minnesota State band accompanies them. They will be met at the depot by Brainerd citizens and headed by the band and followed by school children the St. Paul visitors will parade the city. Souvenirs will be distributed among the children.

Gregory park will be the scene of a concert by the Minnesota state band. The St. Paul men will visit local business men after the parade. In the evening there will be a smoker at the Chamber of Commerce in honor of the visitors.

At St. Cloud

The trade tour special spent three hours in St. Cloud Monday morning. Accompanied by a "peppy" band, says the St. Cloud Daily Times, the visitors marched to St. Germain from the Great Northern station, and spent the remainder of the time visiting St. Cloud merchants, renewing old friendships, making new acquaintances and boosting the products of the capital city.

The downtown section presented a rather festive appearance during the hours the delegation were in St. Cloud, as the St. Paul representatives were in gala attire and the band discoursed popular music. Practically every large wholesaler of St. Paul was represented. Mayor Matson welcomed the train upon its arrival.

Don't Forget the Children

The trade tour special does not forget the children. At Brainerd there will be a large distribution of souvenirs for them, they will have an honor place in the parade, they will be shown outdoor moving pictures, they can take part in a community sing where prizes are to be awarded.

HOOVER LAYS HIGH SUGAR PRICE ON THE PRESIDENT

SAYS IT WOULD BE SELLING FOR 12 TO 16 CENTS NOW IF PRESIDENT
HAD HEEDED ADVICE

(By United Press)

New York, May 25—Sugar would be selling today at from twelve to thirteen cents per pound if the national administration had acted upon recommendations made last summer, Herbert Hoover testified before the Lusk legislative committee here.

Hoover specified the president, attorney general and other members of the cabinet as responsible for failure to buy the Cuban crop at 6½ cents per pound.

Hoover declared the predominating causes of the high cost of living were because the country was short of commodities due to underproduction in Europe and drain upon American exports.

PROMINENT PEOPLE INVOLVED IN PLOT TO STEAL WHISKY

FROM CAR IN ST. PAUL YARDS RE-PORTS SPECIAL AGENTS OF
DEPT. OF JUSTICE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 25—Three state police officials, several from Minneapolis and nearly twenty prominent St. Paul people, are involved in an attempt to steal a carload of whisky from the railroad tracks here Jan. 6, according to T. E. Campbell, special agent of the department of justice.

Officers discussing the case today said it would prove more sensational than the recent Winnipeg-Minneapolis whisky smuggling plot for which 12 men have been indicted and another held under federal bond. Arrests in St. Paul were expected to be made shortly.

RELIEF FROM CAR SHORTAGE EXPECTED

COMMITTEE OF THREE APPOINTED TO TAKE STEPS TO REMEDY THE SITUATION

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 25—Relief from the present freight car shortage today was expected to follow a conference of a committee of three appointed by railroad executives of the middle west to determine radical steps to end the transportation tie up.

The committee will hold a conference today and report Thursday to the railroad managers and plan for ending the car shortage.

The first string of empty cars for the northwest began to arrive here last night. They will be moved at once. Continual trains of empty freight cars are expected next week.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSE INVESTIGATION CONTINUES TODAY

EDWARDS' MANAGER TESTIFIES
$12,900 HAS BEEN RAISED FOR HIS EXPENSES

L. C. MARTIN,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 25—A total of $12,900 has been raised for the candidacy of Governor Edwards, New Jersey democrat, Walker Vick testified before the senate campaign expenditure committee today.

The national personal liberty league, an anti-prohibition organization, has also aided the governor's campaign, Vick said.

The league membership is composed very largely of republicans, he said.

"We have no connection with them, but of course we appreciate their cooperation," Vick said.

Vick stated that no special interests of any kind had contributed or pledged aid to Governor Edwards. Senator Reid, democrat, said: "I am going to ask you bluntly, have you any agreement with liquor interests whereby they are financing Governor Edwards' campaign?"

"Unequivocally no," said Vick. The campaign for Senator Owen is being conducted largely by friends in Oklahoma, James W. Belle, Washington manager, testified.

They raised $7,800 mostly in small contributions, many persons giving from $1.00 to $5.00.

Hoover's Campaign Fund is $62,185.76

Washington, May 25—J. Lucey, Herbert Hoover's manager, was called next. Senator Reed asked a series of questions about Hoover's residence abroad. Senator Edge, of New Jersey, halted Reed's request and steered Lucey to discussion of Hoover's campaign funds.

Hoover's California funds were gathered and spent in that state and Lucey had no knowledge of it, he said. Replying to further questions by Reed Lucey said his work was that of "stimulating" Hoover organizations throughout the country.

"Do you stimulate any of them with cash?" asked Edge.

"No," said Lucey. He submitted an accounting of a deficit of $4,147 in Hoover's campaign funds. Contributions totalling $62,084 some of them from corporations, the account from sale of pamphlets and interest on deposits, brought the total of receipts to $62,185.76, he said.

ACCEPTANCE OF ARMENIAN MANDATE DATE IMPROBABLE

GEN. HARBORD REPORTED A MANDATE
DATE WOULD REQUIRE 50,000
SOLDIERS AND $9 MIL-

LIONS FIRST YEAR

(By United Press)

Washington, May 25—The possibility of congressional concurrence in the recommendations of President Wilson that the United States take a mandate for Armenia is remote, leaders in the house and senate declared today.

Wilson's message will be pigeonholed for the present by the foreign affairs committee in the house and the foreign relations committee in the senate, leaders said.

Brigadier General Harbord, who headed the American mission into Armenia, reports acceptance of such a mandate would require fifty-nine thousand American soldiers and a large naval force at the cost of $89,000,000 the first year.

A solid row of cars was parked on the cement of the fill and in many cases occupants held down seats and saw the game. The mayor may put a cop on the fill and keep cars off, as that roadway was not intended to park cars, and serve as a free grandstand.

A Good Neighbor

Barbara Eaton was plainly upset about something. For it was most unusual for Barbara to scowl.

She had baked a cake to take over to the Randalls—the bride and groom who had moved next door. And the cake had been a failure!

"There's no use," she thought hopelessly. "I just can't bake. I've never made a decent cake in my life." With a smothered sigh she ran over to the next house.

"In Mrs. Eaton—your next-door neighbor," she explained cheerfully to the sweet-looking bride, "I just ran over to see if I could do anything to help you." In a few minutes they were chatting away like old friends. As Barbara was leaving, she said apologetically, "Mrs. Randall, I baked a cake to bring over to you—but it was a failure. I do get so discouraged sometimes, for Alan loves home-made cake."

Mrs. Randall interrupted. "But do you use Ryzon?" she asked, "and the Ryzon Baking Book? Wait a minute, I'm going to get mine for you." She returned, thrusting a book and a can of Ryzon into Mrs. Eaton's hands. "Try these," she said, "following exactly the recipes particularly in regard to level measurements, and you'll never have any more trouble. Let me know how you make out!"

"She's a darling," Barbara confided to Alan later in the evening as he helped himself to his second piece of chocolate cake. "And to think that I could ever make such wonderful cake as this—why, it seems too good to be true."

The new Ryzon Baking Book (original price $1.00), containing 250 practical recipes, will be mailed, postpaid, upon receipt of 30 cents in stamps or coin. Or if you will purchase two or more pounds of Ryzon at once from your grocer, sending us his name and address promptly, we will mail you a Ryzon Baking Book free. Both of these young folks are well known in and around Pine River, the groom being a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. AMUSEMENTS

At the Park Today

A photoplay of vital dramatic value, which runs the gamut of all human emotions, will be presented at the New Park theatre today by William Fox. The picture is "A Tale of Two Cities," screened from Charles Dickens' great novel of the French Revolution.

Recent events in the history of the world have recalled the scenes of the French Revolution, that gigantic upheaval of an oppressed people that changed the map of Europe and the future of more than one nation.

In selecting his cast Mr. Fox made the happy decisions to have William Farnum, favorite star of motion picture audiences, assume the roles of both Sidney Carton, the self-sacrificing if erring Englishman, and Chas. Darnay, the courageous and democratic scion of a noble French family.

The choice of Mr. Farnum assures to the motion picture public a production replete with interest and thrills. One of the many engrossing episodes in the photoplay is that of the Reign of Terror in Paris.

AT THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Salvation Army
Attendance at our Sunday school is keeping up splendidly. On May 2nd commissions for local officership were handed out to 13 officers and teachers for Sunday school and young peoples work alone.

Mrs. Eva Brown is the new Young Peoples Sergeant-Major.
Major and Mrs. H. D. Bale of Minneapolis will spend Saturday and Sunday May 29 and 30 in Brainerd and officers of our Sunday school earnestly urge all members of our school to attend the week end meetings.

The Intermediate department had a good attendance yesterday. This department will have its picnic next week. This was postponed because of the many activities incident to the closing days of the day schools. The date will be announced next Sunday.

The Primary Department is using the music intended for the Children's Day services in their worship periods.

The Ladies classes are cooperating with the Ladies Aid and the Missionary societies of the church in their Missionary shower which will be held on Wednesday afternoon this week. Attendance was increased in all departments from last week. Mr. Michael is expected home from Des Moines this week and will be with the school next Sunday.

The school was pleased to have visitors from Pine River yesterday. They inspected all departments.

First Congregational Sunday School

Attendance yesterday was very good, considering the temperature and call of the outdoor world. The records of the primary department showed a splendid percentage of the enrolled number present. A little new scholar of this department was asked by her teacher where she lived. "With my aunt," said Virginia. "But where does your aunt live? Who lives around you, next door, perhaps?" inquired the teacher. Virginia thought a minute, then a smile broke over her face. "Why, the milkman," she said.

The first part of the morning was given over to rehearsal for the Children's Day exercises. Children's Day will be the first Sunday in June, this year.

The Junior Circle will meet on Wednesday evening in the church parlors. Miss Tina Bakken will entertain.

First Baptist Bible School

Mr. Tracy's class will hold its regular class meeting at his home on Chippewa street, Wednesday evening. A short business session after which a ball game will be staged on the nearby commons.

The Philathea class will hold its regular class meeting at the home of Irma Blake on West Laurel street. Every member present.

The Baraca class room was well filled yesterday morning, twenty-three men present. Dr. Nicholson's clever manner in dealing with the lesson topics make a most interesting hour of Bible discussion.

The report of the school was given by the divisional secretaries and Frank Tracy general secretary gave the summary report, the Children's Division had first place in members present.

The decorations for the G. A. R. Memorial service was enjoyed by the school as "Old Glory" always puts a thrill into every heart, especially Young America.

On account of sickness the school orchestra could not render its valuable service and was greatly missed.

PROTEST AGAINST LONGER SKIRTS

Mass Meeting of Women Called at Chamber of Commerce Wednesday Afternoon, 1:30 O'clock

MRS. P. M. HALE TO BE SPEAKER

Lengthening Skirts Will Cost Women Something to Keep in Style and Increases H. C. of L.

Women of the land are protesting against lengthening of skirts, for such a proposed change in fashions means the purchase of new suits and a further increase in the high cost of living.

Mrs. P. M. Hale, of St. Paul, will speak to Brainerd women at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday afternoon on the subject, the idea being to organize opposition to the lengthening of skirts. All women of Brainerd and vicinity are invited to attend the meeting which will be short.

ALLIES' PROPOSAL UNACCEPTABLE

Since good business sense is a proverbial American trait, it scarcely seems possible that the recent Anglo-Franco-Italian conference at Hythe expected its arrangement for the transfer of war obligations to prove acceptable to the United States.

The Allies owe the United States some eight billion dollars, advanced to help win the war. Germany under the decision at Hythe must pay the Allies an indemnity of thirty billions. Stripped to its simplest terms, the proposal now is that, as Germany pays, the United States shall be paid.

In other words, there is proposed a great pool of the war debts the responsibilities and payments of which are to be shared by America, which owes no other debtor nations, and by Great Britain, which is both creditor and debtor. And our security is to be the coerced promise of broken Germany to pay.

The promises of Great Britain, France and Italy to pay are, no doubt, good promises, that of Great Britain being the best supported. The promise of Germany to pay is a dubious, a highly uncertain promise. It is not a security that we can accept for the L. O. U. we hold from the Allies.

The Hythe plan is a variant of a former proposal that all the war loans be converted into one huge international loan, supported by all the members of the Entente. This was obviously for the advantage of the weaker nations. It meant the voluntary assumption of a large extra burden by the United States. Neither scheme, however pleasant for Britain and France and Italy to contemplate, will be acceptable to this country.

Aside from the strictly-business objection to the Hythe plan, there is to be considered the psychological factor. If it were adopted, America would become in effect Germany's hard-hearted creditor, pressing for regular payments, while the latter's near neighbors having only the duty of forwarding the payments, would be free to resume friendly relations and to profit at our expense by reviving trade.

Our Government has already granted postponement of interest day on its loans to the Allies. It cannot be expected now to shift the security from a good to a bad basis.—Minneapolis Journal.

THE DEAD IN FRANCE

Although they have consented courteously to the request for the removal of the American dead, there is still a deep feeling among the French people for having the bodies of the American soldiers left where they sleep in France, assembled in the great American cemeteries.

Nobody can blame the French. The removal of these bodies means a menace to the health of French people the congestion of their already overburdened railways, and a continuous sad procession through already saddened towns. Last and worst of all, each body removed is a broken link in that chain binding French and American hearts and interests.

Perhaps, if the home people can bring themselves to it, it is the wisest and kindest thing to leave the bodies of our boys as many as may be, over there. Visiting them will not be so difficult as it seems, and they sleep well in the ground they died to defend. Then, too, there is this to be remembered. Graves in those great military cemeteries will care forever. They will be tended for those military cemeteries will have na, Staples and Crosby. Besides the say what will happen to the graves of the boys buried in our smaller cemeteries at home? After this generation that loved them is gone, who will water and tend and weep? How many cemeteries today are dreary, seldom visited, forgotten? How many have already been disturbed which once seemed so secure.

EX-PRESIDENTS

We often read magazine articles on what to do with our ex-presidents. Mexico has no such problem. If lucky enough to serve through a term as president, the ex-president never seems to last long.

C. F. SCHEERS

Who presents "Nurse, the White-Robed Sister," world's war extravaganza, at the Brainerd opera house, Saturday evening, May 29 was president of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association in 1914; vice-president of the Northern Minnesota Development association 1915-1919 and a charter member of the body. He was first sergeant of Co. L, First N. D. Vol. Inf. during the Spanish-American war, and has been in the newspaper business in Northern Minnesota for the past twenty years. The following is from the Akeley Herald-Tribune:

Big town stuff on a country stage summarizes the first showing of the new world's war drama "Nurse, the White-Robed Sister," presented at the Lion theatre, Friday evening, under the auspices of Elwell Engeling Post No. 363, American Legion. From the 90 people present at the production, here was a spontaneous outburst of approval, seldom, if ever before witnessed. From the opening scene in the prologue to the supremely sublime closing of the last act, the play held the audience in a vice-like grip of wonder and amazement. The play is full of sensational military scenes without the smell of gun powder. It goes from hilarious comedy to tragedy in a most interesting and well connected plot, with the greater part of the play written from official information and actual scenes on the battlefield, enacted before paintings from photographs taken in France.

The prologue is laid at Vian, France, where the wife and three small children of "Jean Poincare" had been brutally murdered by the lustful Hun and an American Red Cross nurse narrowly escaped from the fiendish rapiers. The French veteran's complaints are plain but well worded. His pretty daughter, "Madelon" tries in vain to pacify him. Echoes of Roosevelt's criticism of the American administration are brought out in the nurse's defense of the United States. The Frenchman is swindled out of the estate by a German spy posing as an American. He is imprisoned and the daughter goes to America with the Red Cross nurse to help organize a hospital unit.

In the first act "Madelon" meets the German spy at a Red Cross concert, at Washington, D. C. He is acting as a cashier for a German sympathizer, as well as a spy for Von Bernsdorf the ambassador. The cashier's forgeries are cleverly laid on the nurse's brother, "Jack Lawton," who makes a sensational getaway and goes to France with "Captain Boyd, U. S. Army," to whom the nurse is engaged. This act starts the thrill.

The second act is laid at a Vian Red Cross hospital. American troops were stationed in this devastated district. Here a strong scene is reproduced by "Jack Lawton" from an actual happening to an Akeley soldier boy, who was badly wounded and gassed, and was secured by the author while attending the sick bed of the boy while he was delirious after returning from France. There is also some rich comedy and good singing in this act.

The third act is laid at Hun headquarters a few miles from Vian with some of the most sensational, patriotic and inspiring scenes ever enacted on a dramatic stage. The audience went wild. A lady, oblivious to her surroundings, yelled out, "Kill the dirty Hun!" The end was intensely effective. The nurse was shot while binding the wounds of a German officer, and the spirit flight is represented by a dazzling electrical cross throwing its beautiful light upon the white robed figure, while the last verse of "Just As I Am" was sung.

See the illustration below. It tells the real reason for the superiority of the

CHAMBER COMMERCE REGULAR MEETING

Special Committee on Permanent Secretary for the Club to Make Its Report

COMMUNITY PROPOSITIONS UP

Chamber and Farmers to Stage a Farmers Community Picnic at Lum Park Soon

The regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for Wednesday evening, and because of the fact that the last meeting night was skipped, Secretary Stitzel has a lot of business accumulated on his desk for this meeting.

The special committee on a permanent secretary for the club expects to be able to report on their work. A number of applications are being considered for this office, and the committee hopes to fill the vacancy in the near future.

A number of community propositions are on foot, their culmination only awaiting the action of the Chamber. Mr. Stitzel is planning with County Agent E. G. Roth putting on another Farmers Community Picnic. It will be remembered that one such event was held before the war, and proved a big success. It is hoped to now make the picnic an annual affair starting this year. Plans are on foot to hold it this season at Lum Park, and the business men are asked to cooperate in making the event a big success. One of the features will be a talk by the new President of the University of Minnesota.

These and other matters are to come up at the meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday evening, and a large turn-out is requested. The subjects for consideration are of vital importance to the business men, and it is hoped that they will be on hand to offer suggestions and start the wheels turning. Remember the date, tomorrow evening, the meeting starts promptly at eight.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISION

CROW WING COUNTY, (Liability of Physicians.)

Arvid Harju, respondent, vs. F. A. Allen, appellant, and Arvid Harju, appellant, vs. F. A. Allen, respondent—

1. A physician does not insure either correct diagnosis or correct treatment, but he is required to possess the skill and learning which is possessed by the average member of his school of the profession in good standing in his locality, and to apply that skill and learning with reasonable care. If he does this he is not liable for error of judgment in a doubtful case in making a diagnosis or prescribing treatment.

2. There are some facts pertinent to a case in malpractice which may be proven only by the testimony of experts, such as the standards of practice in different schools of medicine or matters resting upon pure theory and judgment, based upon reasons familiar only to experts, but it is not the law that a physician can never be charged with malpractice save upon opinion evidence, in this case there was evidence of malpractice sufficient for submission to the jury.

3. A hypothetical question must embody substantially all the undisputed facts relating to the subject upon which the opinion of the witness is asked. A hypothetical question, asked of an expert in a malpractice case, calling for an opinion as to defendant's diagnosis and treatment, which omits to advise the witness as to the nature and result of certain X-ray pictures which were taken and used for purposes of diagnosis, was improper.

Order affirmed.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

YOU'VE ALL read.
HOW THE great detective,
SHERLOCK HOLMES,
COULD LOOK at the ash
FROM A cigarette.
AND TELL you then.
ALL ABOUT the man.
BUT THE dear girls.
HAVE SHERLOCK stopped,
FOR ALL they need.
IS JUST one look.
AT THE outside.
OF THE package.
THAT'S ALL.
AND IF it is.
THE CIGARETTE.
THAT "SATISFIES."
THE GIRLS know,
RIGHT OFF.
THAT THE man.
WHO SMOKES it,
IS BOUND to be.
HANDSOME AND clever.
AND GOOD and contented.
AND THERE are only.
THREE MILLION of him.
IN THE country.
SO THEY had all.
BETTER LOOK out.
AND IF you get
CAUGHT WITH the goods.
DON'T SAY.
I DIDN'T warn you.

IT doesn't take a Sherlock to find out why Chesterfields "satisfy." Fine tobaccos is one reason. Superior blending is another. And the moisture-proof, glassine paper wrapper is a third. provides you with a fine chuckle- tonic every week—in addition to the installment which comes to you in each daily issue.

While the kids are laughing their heads off over Jiggs' didoes in "Bringing Up Father," the tough time "der Cap" is always having with "The Katzenjammer Kids," poor Paw's periodical peevies in "Polly and Her Pals" and the strenuous adventures of "Mutt and Jeff," you will find some real human humor in W. E. Hill's famous page, "Among Us Mortals."

Here you will see types of humanity doing the funny everyday things that you and I and all of us are apt to do. You will see the peculiar characteristics of people you know faithfully sketched in situations so true to life that you have to laugh at them. Then there is J. N. Darling's clever series of cartoons, "We Have With Us Today," to keep you grinning until the kids get through with the "funnies." In addition to all this humor, you will get lots of other interesting material.
